This policy is a legal contract between you and us and designed to be as easy to understand as possible. You must make a fair presentation of the risk to us at inception, renewal and variation of the policy.

Your statement of fact, the schedule, your policy and any endorsements shall be considered as one legal document. It is important that you read all your documents carefully and let your insurance broker or adviser know immediately if the insurance does not meet your requirements or if any information is inaccurate or incomplete. If any changes are required, this may result in changes to the terms and conditions of the policy or a refusal to provide cover.

We are keen to work in partnership with you and avoid any misunderstandings.

Your obligations under the policy

The policy imposes certain obligations upon you which if not complied with may invalidate this insurance or a claim.

Some of these obligations are expressed to be Policy condition or Conditions precedent. These are extremely important. If you are in breach of any of these obligations at the time of a loss, we will have no obligation to indemnify you in relation to any claim for that loss. However if a Policy condition or Conditions precedent is intended to reduce the risk of a loss of a particular kind, at a particular location or at a particular time, we will not rely on the breach of that Policy condition or Conditions precedent to exclude, limit or discharge our liability if the breach could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred.

Steps to be taken if you cannot comply

If you are unable to comply with any Policy condition or Conditions precedent you should contact us as soon as reasonably possible through your insurance adviser. We will decide whether we might be prepared to agree a variation in the policy.

ALL POLICY CONDITION OR CONDITIONS
PRECEDENT REMAIN EFFECTIVE UNLESS YOU RECEIVE WRITTEN CONFIRMATION OF A VARIATION FROM US THROUGH YOUR INSURANCE BROKER OR ADVISER.

You should keep a written record (including copies of letters) of any information you give us or your insurance adviser, at inception, renewal or making variation to this policy.

Under the laws of the United Kingdom (England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland) both you and we may choose the law which applies to this contract to the extent permitted by those laws. Unless you and we agree otherwise in writing we have agreed with you that the law which applies to this contract is the law which applies to the part of the United Kingdom in which you are based or if you are based in the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man the law of whichever of those two places in which you are based.

We and you have agreed that any legal proceedings between you and us in connection with this contract will only take place in the courts of the part of the United Kingdom in which you are based or if you are based in either the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man

You or your legal representatives must also let us know without undue delay if you are aware that anyone covered under your policy is to be prosecuted as a result of the incident or if there is to be an inquest or a fatal accident inquiry.
- b You, or anyone else claiming under your policy, must not admit to any claim, promise any payment or refuse any claim without our written consent. If we want to, we can take over and conduct in your name, or the name of the person claiming under your policy, the defence or settlement of any claim or take proceedings for our own benefit to recover any payment we have made under your policy. We shall have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings or the settlement of any claim. The person who is seeking payment under your policy shall give us all the information and assistance necessary for us to achieve a settlement.
- c Where there is a claim, or a number of claims, arising out of one incident, and this relates to payment for liability for loss of or damage to property, we may, at any time, pay you the full amount we are required to pay under your policy (less any sums we have already paid in compensation) or, any less amount for which claims can be settled and having done so, relinquish the conduct and control of such claims and be under no further liability for them. Cancellation of your policy will not affect any claims or rights you or we may have before the date of cancellation

We do not have to offer renewal of your policy and cover will cease on the expiry date

- b We reserve the right to cancel your policy when there is a valid reason to do so. Valid reasons include:
 - You provide us with inaccurate or incomplete information. Please see General Condition (3) for further information

Should you be in any doubt as to whether information should be presented to us, you must

- i discuss it with your insurance broker or adviser, or
- ii disclose it to us
- b We may, at our absolute discretion, avoid the policy and refuse to pay any claims where any failure to make a fair presentation is:
 - i deliberate or reckless; or
 - ii of such other nature that, if you had made a fair presentation, we would not have issued the policy

We will return the premium paid by you unless the failure to make a fair presentation is deliberate or reckless.

- c If we would have issued the policy on different terms had you made a fair presentation, we will not avoid the policy (except where the failure is deliberate or reckless) but we may instead, at our absolute discretion;
 - i reduce proportionately the amount paid or payable on any claim, the proportion for which we are liable being calculated by comparing the premium actually charged as a percentage of the premium which we would have charged had you made a fair presentation; and/or
 - ii treat the policy as if it had included such additional terms (other than those requiring payment of premium) as we would have imposed had you made a fair presentation.

For the purposes of this condition references to:

- a avoiding a policy means treating the policy as if it had not existed from the inception date (where the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk occurs before or at the inception of the policy), the renewal date (where the failure occurs at renewal of the policy), or the variation date (where the failure occurs when the policy is varied),
- b refunds of premium should be treated as refunds of premium back to the inception date, renewal date or variation date as the context requires,
- c issuing a policy should be treated as the references to issuing the policy at inception, renewing the policy as the context requires,
- d premium should be treated as the premium payable for the particular contract of insurance which is subject to this condition (where there is more than one contract of insurance).

3B Fair presentation of the risk (Consumer Customers only)

When incepting, renewing or making changes to your policy, you or your agent (acting on your behalf) must take reasonable care to provide accurate and complete answers to all questions. We may ask you to provide further information and/or documentation to ensure that the information you provided when incepting, making changes to or renewing your policy was accurate and complete.

We may terminate your policy in the event that there is a default in any instalment payments due under a linked loan agreement.

5 Other insurance

If at the time of any claim arising under your policy there is any other insurance policy covering the same loss, damage or liability, we will only pay our proportionate share of the claim. This condition does not apply to personal accident benefits under Section 5, which will be paid as indicated under that Section.

This provision will not place any obligation upon us to accept any liability under Section 4, which we would otherwise be entitled to exclude under Exclusion 1 of Section 4.

6 Your duty to prevent loss or damage

It is a condition precedent to our liability to make any payment under this policy that you must

- a take all reasonable precautions to prevent or minimise loss, destruction or damage, accident or injury

- b declare the policy void from the date of the fraudulent act without any refund of premiums

We may also inform the police of the circumstances.

10 Mileage

We reserve the right to establish the mileage on your vehicle at any time if your policy is rated on a selected annual mileage limit. Where the mileage limit has been exceeded your premium will be increased to that which applies to a higher mileage limit. If we become aware that the mileage limit has been exceeded at the time of a claim the additional premium will be deducted from the claims payment. The higher premium will apply from the commencement of the period of insurance.

We reserve the right to withhold the premium you have paid for any vehicle which has been the subject of a claim under your policy where payment has been made or is likely to be made.

- a continue to provide cover on the same terms
- b restrict the cover provided
- c impose additional terms
- d alter the premium
- cancel the cover on the vehicle, on your policy

If you fail to notify us of any such alteration, we may, at our absolute discretion;

- a treat the policy as if it has come to an end as at the date of the alteration of the risk, returning a proportionate amount of the premium for the unexpired period of insurance, if we would have cancelled the section and the policy had we know of the increase in risk.
- b treat the policy as if it has contained such terms (other than relating to premium) or other restrictions (if any) from the date of the alteration in risk as we would have applied had we known of the increase in risk.
- c reduce proportionately the amount paid or payable on any claim, the proportion for which we are liable being calculated by comparing the premium actually charged as a percentage of the premium which we would have charged had we known of the increase in risk.

14 Rights of recovery

If the law in any country in which your policy operates requires us to settle a claim which, if the law had not existed, we would not be obliged to pay we reserve the right to recover such payments from you or from the person who incurred the liability.

15 Financial or Trade Sanctions

The insurers shall not provide cover or be liable to provide any indemnity or payment or other benefit under this policy if and to the extent that doing so would breach any prohibition or restriction imposed by law or regulation.

If any such prohibition or restriction takes effect during the period of insurance the policyholder or the insurers may cancel that part of this policy which is prohibited or restricted with immediate effect by sending written notice to the other at their last known registered address.
