General conditions

1. Alteration

The Insured must notify the Insurer as soon as possible during the Period of Insurance if there is any change in circumstances which materially increases the risk of accident, injury, loss, damage or liability.

Upon notification of any such change the Insurer will be entitled to vary the premium and terms for the rest of the Period of Insurance. If the changes make the risk unacceptable to the Insurer then the Insurer may no longer be able to provide the Insured with cover.

If the Insured does not notify the Insurer of any such change this Policy may be affected in one or more of the following ways depending on what the Insurer would have done had the Insurer known about the change in circumstances:

- a) if the Insurer would not have continued to provide the Insured with any cover the Insurer may treat this Policy as if it did not exist from the date of the change in circumstances; or
- b) if the Insurer would have applied different terms to the cover the Insurer may treat this Policy as if those different terms applied from the date of the change in circumstances; and/or
- c) if the Insurer would have charged the Insured a higher premium for providing the cover the Insurer will charge the Insured the additional premium which the Insured must pay in full.

2. Arbitration

If the Insurer admits liability for a claim but there is a dispute as to the amount to be paid the dispute will be referred to an arbitrator. The arbitrator will be appointed jointly by the Insured and the Insurer in accordance with the law at the time. The Insured may not take any legal action against the Insurer over the dispute before the arbitrator has reached a decision.

3. Authorised persons

If the Insured decides the Policy does not meet their requirements, they should inform the Insurer (or the Insured's broker or insurance intermediary) within 14 days of receiving it (or for renewals, within 14 days of the Policy renewal date).

The Insurer will apply a premium on a pro rata basis for the time the Insured has been on cover subject to a minimum premium of £50 plus insurance premium tax (IPT) and any remaining balance of premium the Insured has paid will be refunded.

If the Policy is cancelled at any other time the Insurer will apply a premium on a pro rata basis for the time the Insured has been on cover subject to a minimum premium of £50 plus insurance premium tax (IPT) and any remaining balance of premium the Insured has paid will be refunded to the Insured.

The Insurer will not refund any premium if the Insurer has paid a claim or one is outstanding when the Policy is cancelled (in the same period of insurance). Where a claim is submitted after the Policy has been cancelled the Insurer will deduct the amount of any premium returned to the Insured following the cancellation from any claim payment the Insurer may make. The full annual premium remains payable regardless of the payment method used.

- b) Cancellation by the Insurer

The Insurer has the right to cancel this Policy by giving the Insured 14 days' notice in writing to the Insured's last known address.

The Insured will be entitled to a pro rata refund of any remaining balance of premium paid from the date of cancellation.

Provided always that if the person concerned or the Insured acting on their behalf makes a careless misrepresentation of fact the Insurer may invoke the remedies available to the Insurer under this condition as against that particular person as if a separate insurance contract had been issued to them leaving the remainder of the Policy unaffected.
